DERVLA MURPHY RIP

Pioneering cycling author Dervla Murphy has died. She passed away at home on 22 May at the age of 90. She is best known for her first book, 'Full Tilt: Ireland to India with a Bicycle', which was published in 1965. She wrote more than 20 others, including her autobiography, Wheels within Wheels. She has been described as 'the first lady of Irish cycling', and in 2017 was named one of Cycling UK's 100 Women in Cycling. Her books remain in print.

Manchester

THE RIDING'S ON THE WALL

A Cycling UK employee has become Manchester's latest cycling hero after being added to a vibrant local mural. Ellen Holmes features in the artwork, which celebrates the Manchester cycling community, in her role as Big Bike Revival cycling development officer. The mural's home, on a building at Platt Fields Park, was the location for the Big Bike Revival pilot events back in 2014. Ellen (pictured) said: "I feel honoured to be on the mural in the company of people like Chris Boardman – it's really cool!"
