

This summer, Cycling UK is encouraging women to be active and enjoy the fresh air, freedom and fun of cycling by getting out on their bikes.

Women's Festival of
CYCLING

With on and off-road rides around the country put on by our local groups and volunteers, there's plenty of chances to get involved. Find out about your nearest event below. There's a free Cycling UK goodie bag for the first 10 riders to register!
