Cycling UK Admin Assistant – Scotland

Job Description and Responsibilities

Reports to: Scotland Programme Manager
Direct Reports: None
Location of Role: Home based in Scotland or shared office based in Edinburgh, Glasgow or Inverness
Contract: Fixed Term until 31 March 2021
Salary: £22,000 (FTE)

Purpose of Role:
To work with Cycling UK Development Officers, Managers and the Head of Development Scotland across our projects in Scotland, providing administrative support on our busy and expanding programmes around the country.

Scope of Role:
The Administration Assistant will work across all Cycling UK projects in Scotland, working closely with Scotland Managers and the Head of Development Scotland to support our systems of reporting, grant making, training co-ordination and events. This postholder requires an excellent level of organisation and an ability to work across multiple projects, communicating with colleagues through mainly online systems and phone calls. Flexible approach to communication and cross project work will be required during current lockdown restrictions.

Specific duties and responsibilities:
1. Work with colleagues at Cycling Scotland, and other partners, to organise and book training for groups we work with across Scotland

2. Supporting Development Officers to organise networking events, conferences and cycling activities when safe to do so again - using tools such as Eventbrite - including booking instructors, venues and refreshments

3. When safe to host events again, supporting project participants with event registration, queries and ensuring that participants are followed up for evaluation

4. Supporting the Big Bike Revival Senior Project Officer and Play Together on Pedals Development Officers with community grant administration

5. Provide Development Officers with support to manage their budget allocation, log information on shared systems and other ad hoc tasks

6. Support Communications colleagues with responses on social media when necessary

7. Any other administrative tasks required by the Head of Development Scotland
Admin Assistant (Scotland)
