Notes:

The Standing Orders of CTC Council and past resolutions by Council set out the procedures governing Committees. The members are elected annually by Council. The proposals below have been recommended by the Executive Committee from the 'Expressions of the Interest' received.

The Chair of Council is an ex-officio voting member of all Committees.

The Chief Executive of his representative attends all Committees.

Co-opted members of Council may vote at Committees and fall into the specified number of Councillors on each Committee.

Committees may also co-opt a number of specialist members from outside the Council at a future point, approval of the co-optees is not required by full Council.
