

BENEFIT OF THE MONTH

FEELING GOOD WITH FONEHOUSE & CTC

fonehouse, one of the UK's largest mobile phone retailers, last year launched the 'Feelgood' campaign which raises funds through phone recycling for environmental initiatives in the local communities where fonehouse work.

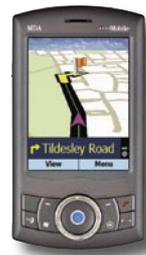

fonehouse recognise the enormous benefits of cycling to the individual, the local community and to the environment – from feeling good physically, to providing alternative transportation to reduce our carbon footprint – and are working with CTC to raise funds for CTC's work.

Mobile phones can provide valuable support for the cyclist as a way of keeping in touch on the road, in an emergency, to find out where the café stop is and, with the next generation of phones, as a GPS navigational tool. CTC have negotiated with fonehouse to bring you two exclusive mobile phone offers:
