PRIZE DRAW WIN!

10 SETS OF REELIGHTS WORTH £37.99 EACH

'Permanently fitted, theft resistant, unforgettable lights that will always come on and stay on! Here at last is a set of simple flashing lights that take care of your legal obligations, leaving you free to fit whatever "additional" lights you need – which, under streetlights, might be none.' When we reviewed Reelights last issue, Chris Juden was impressed.

Reelights use spoke-mounted magnets to power, by magnetic induction, bright flashing LED lamps that mount to the wheel axles. They're legal to use on a bike as your sole light source, and it's practically effortless to power them. The 0.12W of power they require at 20kph is like riding up a hill that rises one-and-a-half inches per mile. There's no noise, no batteries, no wires to fray or come loose, and the LEDs should last for 100,000 hours. For town and city riding, they're ideal for making you visible. Riding with Reelights reduced the risk of an accident by 32% in a study conducted in Odense, Denmark, from 2004-2005.

Reelights are available in four versions in the UK, with prices ranging from £27.99 to £37.99: the SL100 Flash for hub gears; the SL100 Flash for derailleur gears; the SL120 Power Backup for hub gears; and the SL120 Power Backup for derailleur gears, which Chris tested. Thanks to Reelight, we've got ten sets of the latter to give away. In 2008, Reelight will launch the SL150 Steady Light for hub and derailleur gears.

For more information about Reelights, see www.reelight.com. Reelights are distributed in the UK by 2pure, www.2pure.co.uk. They're also for sale at CTC Shop (tel: 0870 873 0069, www.ctcshop.com).

All cheques should be made payable to 'CTC York Cycle Show'. The fee is for up to three nights camping (20th, 21st, and 22nd June 2008) including shower use. I agree to comply with the organisers' instructions and not to hold them responsible for damage to persons or property. I also agree to comply with the requirements of the Campers Code (copies available from the Camp HQ at the Show or in advance from the CTC HQ), especially the need to be quiet after 11pm each night. The organisers retain the right to instruct those who fail to comply to leave the campsite so as not to cause an unacceptable disturbance to other campers.
