Promising an exciting experience for every kind of cyclist, there will be plenty of gear to browse and buy, exciting features to watch and take part in, and everything any road, mountain, urban or family cyclist could ever need.

Looking for some new clothing, accessories, a cycling holiday, training advice or something else? There will be over 200 cycling related exhibitors present. For those looking to improve their cycling, the Surrey Human Performance Training Hub offers visitors the chance to measure their fitness, challenge their performance and walk away with a personalised training programme.

Hear from cycling legends including Sir Chris Hoy in the Cycling Performance Theatre (Sponsored by British Eurosport), watch breathtaking stunt displays, try out the latest bikes on the 500-metre BikesEtc Test Track, and much more.
