

THE BIG PICTURE

OREGON, USA
WARM SPRINGS
INDIAN RESERVATION

Late this summer, I led a three-week CTC Cycling Holidays tour of Oregon. Eleven CTC members cycled through some amazing North American landscapes, ranging from glorious coastal scenery to mountain passes and long-dead volcanoes. The high point was a ride along the Historic Columbia River Highway through the Columbia Gorge. This picture was taken in the Warm Springs Indian Reservation, which lies between Maupin and Madras. It was quite some trip. Neil Wheadon
