

Our Cycling Suffragette

A symbol of women's emancipation since the 1890s, the bicycle proved useful to the suffrage campaign. This talk by Hugh Morgan (Merton Cycling Campaign,) will feature the country's most significant and influential cycling suffragette – Merton and Wimbledon campaigner, Rose Lamartine Yates.

21 July, 2 – 4pm

Colliers Wood Library,
105-109 High Street,
Colliers Wood,
London SW19 2HR

For information/ bookings:

Tel. 020 8545 3239

Email: local.studies@merton.gov.uk

www.merton.gov.uk/heritage