

SHOP WINDOW

Christmas novelties like bicycle-related pizza cutters can soon lose their charm. Dan Joyce picks some practical gifts for around £50 or less

Save money

As a member, you can save up to 50% on a wide range of cycling products and services.

Visit cyclinguk.org/member-benefits

1 Cycling UK gift membership

£52

Give someone a whole year of cycling inspiration and support from as little as £4.34 a month. That's for individual Cycling UK membership; concessionary is £34, family £84.

cyclinguk.org/gift

2 Green Oil Massive Brush

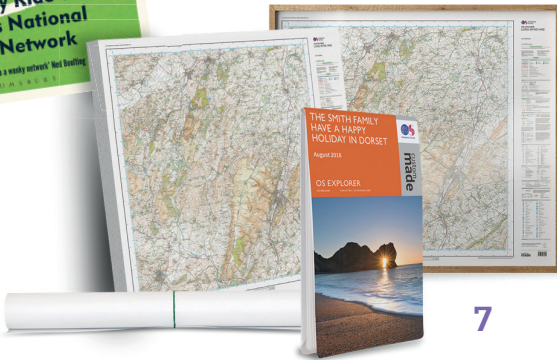

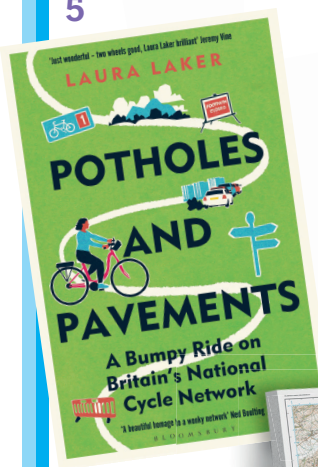

£47.99

At 46cm (18in), Green Oil's wooden brush with plant-based bristles is long enough to clean your bike without (much) bending over. It's pricy but should last over a decade, Green Oil says. green-oil.net

3 Hiplok FX

£22.99

Peace of mind for club run café stops, where heavy locks aren't an option, Hiplok's steel-cable combination lock can be clipped into your jersey pocket. Members get 20% off, too. hiplok.com

2

3

5

6

7

4 Sealskinz Stanfield socks

£50

Not all Christmas socks are a disappointment. These mid-length ones have a waterproof membrane and a thermal inner layer, making them ideal for the worst winter rides. sealskinz.com

5 Potholes and Pavements

£16.99

Laura Laker's 'bumpy ride on Britain's national cycle network' was a hit with our reviewer in the June/July issue and should be received equally well by any seasoned cyclist. laura-laker.com/book

6 CatEye Padrone Wireless cycle computer

£49.99

No GPS, no navigation, no Strava uploads – just a refreshingly simple wireless bike computer that gives you speed, distance and time in nice big numbers. cateyecycling.co.uk

7 Custom made OS map

£7.99+
Create your own paper, canvas or framed print of a map area you select, personalising it with your text and photo. You can even add a highlighted route on it to celebrate a special ride. shop.ordnancesurvey.co.uk

More online

Check out our in-depth reviews of the latest bikes and gear online at:

cyclinguk.org/cycling-advice