

Inverness & Manchester INCLUSIVE CYCLING VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

The Inclusive Cycling Experience (ICE) is looking for volunteers to help us deliver our valuable work in Greater Manchester and Inverness. You'll be helping to develop riders' skills on various inclusive cycles during try-out sessions, and supporting led rides to give others the independence of cycling. If you're a confident, friendly cyclist who'd like to know more, please email Sian on volunteering@cyclinguk.org.

Northern Ireland

TAKE ACTION ON ACTIVE TRAVEL

The Department for Infrastructure's consultation on its new Active Travel Delivery Plan for Northern Ireland closes on 28 February. The plan outlines design principles for cycling and maps priority routes for the largest towns and cities outside Belfast for the next 10 years. If you live in Northern Ireland, visit cyclinguk.org/northern-ireland to find out how you can respond to the plan.

Governance

WELCOME TO OUR NEW TRUSTEES

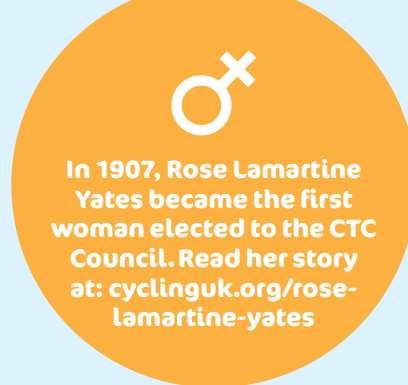

A huge thank you to everyone who took part in the trustee elections. Your votes have helped shape the leadership of Cycling UK and we're grateful for your support.

We're thrilled to welcome Ben Still and Roxanne De Beaux as the newest members of Cycling UK's board of trustees. Their passion for cycling and wealth of experience will play a key role in shaping the charity's future. We also celebrate the re-election of Melanie Carroll and Paul Baker. Paul will continue in his capacity as acting chair until a chair is appointed in March. Finally, we extend our thanks to Christine Gibbons, who steps down after six years as a trustee.

Meet the new trustees

Ben Still brings a lifetime of cycling enthusiasm to the board. From his teenage paper round in north London to regular cycle commuting, cycling has always been a means to an end for Ben: to get to work, to the shops, to see friends or to see the countryside.

Through his work in central and local government, Ben has been involved in many cycling-friendly initiatives, including active travel planning, cycling infrastructure schemes and community grant programmes. On his new position as trustee, Ben said: "I'm delighted to be joining the board of trustees. I've been a member of Cycling UK in its various forms since 1991, and I'm really looking forward to supporting the organisation to deliver its strategy and business plans over the coming years."

Roxanne De Beaux is the CEO of Camcycle, the Cambridge Cycling Campaign. She has dedicated nearly a decade to growing the charity's income, influence, impact and membership numbers, turning Camcycle into one of the UK's most successful cycling campaigns.

Roxanne brings a wealth of expertise in strategy, governance, finance, HR and fundraising, as well as a proven track record of successful campaigning. A dedicated cyclist herself, Roxanne cycles daily and enjoys cycle touring. Reflecting on her new role, she said: "I've been grateful for the support from the Cycling UK campaigns team for Camcycle over the last decade. I now look forward to giving back and sharing my campaigning and charity leadership experience to support Cycling UK and my fellow board members in delivering the new ambitious strategy."
