

Member Groups, such as Sheffield CTC, can now receive £250 per year from Cycling UK, thanks to a motion passed at the 2024 AGM

DIARY DATES

Cycle to Work Day

The UK's largest cycle commuting event, Cycle to Work Day, takes place on 7 August this year.

The aim is to get as many people riding to work as possible. For six reasons to try it, visit: cyclinguk.org/cycle-to-work-day.

Your vote matters

At last year's AGM we were very pleased to see such strong member engagement in the charity's governance, with many of you voting on the proposed resolutions and joining us online for the event. We'd like to take this opportunity to share an update on the impact of two resolutions that were successfully carried in 2024.

Recognising the central role our member groups play in bringing cycling to life in communities across the UK, members voted in favour of increasing the maximum annual group contribution from £200 to £250. These groups are at the heart of Cycling UK, organising an average of 160 rides every week and contributing to an incredible 730,000 hours of organised rides each year. With this increased support, we're better placed to help them grow their activity and inspire more people to experience the joy of cycling.

You also passed a motion that gave the Board the option to increase the number of co-opted Cycling UK trustees from three to four, providing greater flexibility to appoint a trustee with particular skills or experience. As a result, Fiona Abbott was appointed in March for an initial term of three years.

As Transformation Director at Kantar, a global market research agency, Fiona brings extensive expertise in leadership, organisational change and behavioural science. Fiona has provided valuable strategic input during a period of internal transformation, supporting the staff team on refining and embedding culture, values and ways of working to better position Cycling UK to deliver on happier, healthier and greener lives through cycling.

London Edinburgh London

The 1,540km London Edinburgh London audax event runs from 3–8 August. For more information, including a video, live tracking and volunteering opportunities, visit londonedinburgh.london.com.
