

Shop window

New and upcoming products that have caught the editor's eye

01

Campagnolo Super Record 13 £3,900

Campag has Spinal Tapped its top-end wireless groupset, Super Record, turning it up to 2x13. The cassette is the same width as Campag 12-speed one but with closer spacing. campagnolo.com

04

Swytech Max+ £999

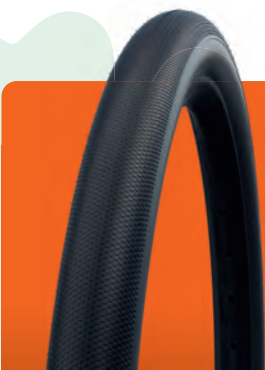

Swytech's new Max+ and Max++ e-bike conversion kits have bigger batteries (up to 370Wh) and add a rear-hub-motor option. The batteries have a USB port for charging phones. swytchbike.com

02

Giant ARX 26 £449

Giant has joined Frog and formerly Islabikes in offering lightweight children's hybrids. The new all-aluminium ARX bikes (16, 20, 24 and 26in wheel sizes) have proportional cranks. giant-bicycles.com

05

Schwalbe G One Speed £68.99

No bone-jarring narrowness here: Schwalbe's G One Speed gravel tyre comes in sizes up to 60-622 (29x2.35). It's tubeless ready and designed for 30-50psi. schwalbetires.com

07

Apidura Expedition Stem Pack £53

Stem packs are usually used for on-the-go snacks. Apidura's can do that but as it's waterproof it can also carry electronics such as phones, cameras and power banks. apidura.com

03

Burley Hopper £529

Winner of a Eurobike 2025 award, the Hopper is a cargo trailer that turns into a hard cart or pushchair, tool free, due to folding castor wheels and a dual-purpose tow-bar. burley.com

06

Garmin Edge MTB £339.99

A GPS computer just for mountain bikers, this also tracks MTB metrics like jumping, shows the difficulty of upcoming trails and includes incident detection and Trailforks data. garmin.com

