Christmas gift ideas for the cyclists in your life (including yourself)

01

Cycling UK gift membership £41.25

Less wrapping, more riding! Give someone a gift that lasts all year long. As a treat for Christmas, it's 25% off. That's £41.25 instead of £55 (or only £3.44 per month!) for individual membership.

The Cycling Chef: Plant-Powered Performance £22

Know a cyclist considering Veganuary or who just wants more plant-based meals in their diet? This recipe book could be the answer – and members get 30% off (see cyclinguk.org/cycling-chef). bloomsbury.com

03

Knog Scout Bike Alarm & Finder £49.99

An 85dB motion-sensitive alarm plus a location sensor that works with Apple's FindMy app (Android version coming). Fitting under a bottle cage, it particularly suits tours and club-run café stops where you lack a big lock. knog.com

Save money

As a member, you can save up to 50% on a wide range of cycling products and services. Visit cyclinguk.org/member-benefits

06

Schwalbe SOS Mini Pump £34.99

Only 85g and 12.9cm long, Schwalbe's aluminium SOS mini pump is a well-built, pocket-sized inflator (Presta or Schrader) that actually works. It's no frame pump but will get you home. schwalbe.com/en
