

Shop window

New and upcoming products that have caught the editor's eye

01

Singular Albatross £3,450

This rigid, big-wheel MTB/gravel bike comes as a rolling chassis: Ti frame, carbon fork, Hope headset, and hand-built wheels with 32x2.4in Maxxis Aspen tyres. Sizes L, XL and XXL only. singularcycles.com

02

Jorvik Tricycles RIDA+ £2,599

At £2,166 with VAT relief, Jorvik's new e-trike is a relatively affordable entry point into assisted tricycling. Frame and stem fold for transportation by car or for storage.

jorviktricycles.com

Save money
Don't forget your exclusive member savings, with up to 50% off cycling products and services. Visit cyclinguk.org/member-benefits

03

Redshift Mousetrap Pedal Adapters £54.99

Convert your SPD pedals tool free to flats with a pair of 80x105mm nylon platforms that don't change pedal stack height and that can fit in a pocket. redshiftsports.com

05

Topeak Handlebar Rack £49.99

Reminiscent of the Jack the Bike Rack, Topeak's bar rack is a 26x25x21cm luggage platform that will carry loads up to 4.5kg. The bungee comes with it. topeak.com

06

Teravail Moonstone Carbon Handlebar £219.99

OK, you don't really need a moto-inspired carbon handlebar. But if you want a lightweight, high-rise (85mm) bar for your MTB or bikepacking bike, this one should be on the shortlist. teravail.com

07

Restrap Switch Rack £124.99

Restrap's minimalist rack fits to a supplied thru-axle and either seatpost or seat tube. It accommodates cargo cages, Switch panniers, a top deck and more. restrap.com

04

Microshift Advent MX £199+

Microshift's new 1x10 or 1x11 groupset has hardened small cogs, a stronger clutch, slicker shifting and a replaceable derailleur cage. 10-speed MX works with Advent X and Sword. microshift.com